

COMPETITION RULES

Home players should offer three evening dates in two different weeks by the 'Offer' date.

One of these dates must be accepted unless another mutually agreed date can be agreed.

Failure to offer dates in time will result in a walk-over for the away player.

Failure to accept any offered dates will result in a walk-over for the home player.

The fixture secretary should be contacted immediately in the event of a dispute.

The fixture secretary's decision will be final.

Finals will be arranged on neutral tables, and will not be delayed nor re-arranged at the request of only one player,
